Charleston Barbershop Chorus and Palmetto Vocal Project Quartets Delivering Singing Valentines Tuesday February 13th and Wednesday February 14, 2018

On Tuesday, February 13 and Valentine's Day, Wednesday, February 14, 2018 Quartets from the Charleston Barbershop Chorus and Palmetto Vocal Project will deliver Singing Valentines to that special someone in your life.

For $50, the a cappella singers wearing distinctive red, white and black dress will visit all kinds of places--restaurants, schools, offices, hospitals, retirement communities, or homes and sing for your loved one a love song, deliver a Valentine's Day card and a long-stemmed rose provided by Belvas Flower Shop of Mount Pleasant.

"Last year we delivered about 60 Singing Valentines to teachers, secretaries, nurses, retirees and students. It's wonderful to surprise someone and see their smiles as we sing a love song on behalf of their loved one. It's something they never expect to happen," says Charleston Barbershop Chorus Music Director, Braeden Kershner.

The Charleston Barbershop Chorus meets every Monday evening 7pm-9pm at Old St. Andrews Parish Church, 2604 Ashley River Rd, West Ashley, 29414.
